

Move Southwest Privacy Policy

Your privacy is respected at all times. Move Southwest will not sell or make available your personal information in any way, except where you have specifically asked us to.

Move Southwest will collect and use information you supply to us in the following ways:

- Data that you provide when registering and using the site generally will be stored by Move Southwest and be used by Move Southwest to contact you, provide you with information relevant to the Services as well as for the day-to-day use and improvement of the Services, unless you have asked us not to do so
- Move Southwest does not hold clients' financial information

We DO NOT collect the following information:

- Information about other programs that you are running on your computer
- Any passwords that you enter in a website

You can request to have the Data you supplied deleted from Move Southwest's records. You may modify the data supplied to Move Southwest at any time. You agree to update your data if it changes. You agree that Move Southwest may, if required by law, disclose your Data to any person empowered to request such information.